

then the acceptance of an in kind contribution from either source would be a violation of federal law.
(Attachment 10)

Ongoing and continuous violations of the Disclaimer Rule on Campaign printed material

Finally, on November 29, 2013, and two times on December 7, 2013, and on January 20, 2014, Thomas Brown, each time with a group of supporters, marched in Veterans Day, Christmas and MLK Holiday parades, wearing Thomas Brown For Congress T-shirts, carrying Thomas Brown For Congress professional quality yard signs, and passing out professional quality Thomas Brown For Congress hand cards. These materials did not include the requisite Disclaimer. (Attachment 11 including several ads without the Disclaimer). The FEC year-end campaign disclosure form makes no mention of expenditures for campaign T-shirts, campaign yard signs, and campaign hand cards, or in-kind donations of same as contributions. The failure to report the expenditures for these campaign materials or the receipt of same, as in kind contributions could constitute violations of FEC rules.

Again, former Sheriff Tom Brown is a candidate who has repeatedly demonstrated a blatant disregard for the "rules of the road." By this complaint, we are asking that he be notified in accordance with FEC complaint guidelines to bring his campaign into compliance and that appropriate sanctions be imposed for any verifiable violations.
